Welcome back from the summer holidays.

The summer was hot, the heat at the top of the leaderboard is getting even hotter.

There was a lot of action over the intervening months, so we'll only concentrate on the sports events which happened recently.

Predictably, Dublin have won the All-Ireland football final. The Dubs proved way too strong for a gallant Tyrone team, if there was ever a case for a team being "too good for the rest", this is surely it.

The vast majority of Scoil Mhuire Students agreed with that pick. 73 picked it correctly.

However, only 2 of the Top 14 on the student leaderboard have disagreed, and crucially, one of those was our student leader, James McGuinn. He drops one spot to sit in Tied 2nd place with Nicky Faherty.

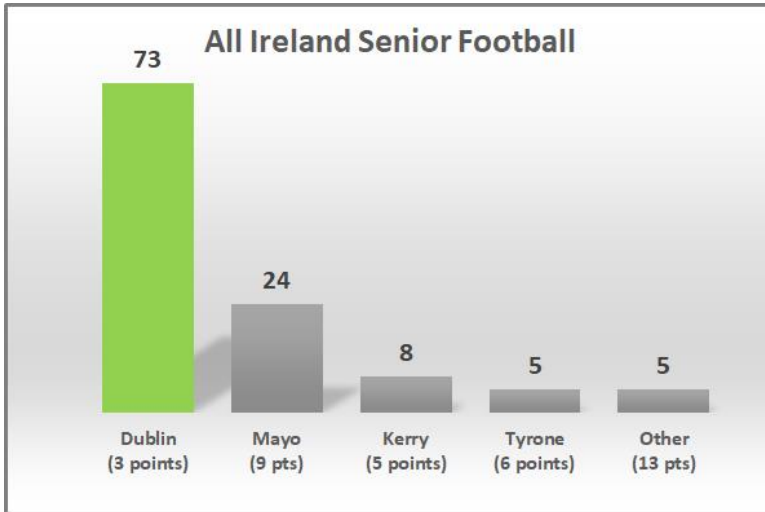

Welcome back to the top of the table, Aoibhinn McHale. Aoibhinn has been one of the most consistent players in the entire competition, always near the top of the leaderboard, and possibly timing a dip for the finishing line at just the right time.

But hold tight! Only 8 points separate the Top 12 in the running, and we still have 2 events to go. It could be any one of these on the leaderboard, or maybe a long distance finisher who sneaks the prize at the last minute. We watch and wait. I have no idea what will happen, but I'll certainly be glued to the outcome. Good luck to all.
