Lough Kip River

It is a short, low volume, rocky run. The river is very narrow, with lots of trees, from, start to finish you might only catch 3 eddies. <https://oceanservice.noaa.gov/facts/eddy.html> ← (to find out what an eddie is)

Ballyquirke lough

Ballyquirke Lough is located about 11 km northwest of Galway city, on the N59 road, near the village of Moycullen. The lake is a pike fishing destination.

White Gables

It is housed in an old stone cottage dating back in 1920s. Cooking is traditional and focused around seafood

Salthill Devon FC

Salthill Devon Football Club, founded in 1947 as the Salthill Crusaders, became Salthill Athletic in 1950 and finally Salthill Devon Football Club in 1977. Today it is a nationally-recognised brand, with a reputation as one of the most progressive, organised and successful clubs in the country.

Killagoola

My moms great grandparents had a flour mill. Its name is derived from the Irish name of Cill Ogúla, which means Church on the Shoulder.

Church of the immaculate conception

To mark the 50th anniversary of the church of the immaculate conception, Maigh Cuilinn in 2003, a special booklet was produced: A Time to Remember. It would now be 67 years old.

Tullokyne Castle

The castle are said to have been built by two sisters, who, in old age, being unable to travel, built their castles close together so that they could harangue each other from their own windows.
