
All About Killagoola

This is basically the landscape of killagoola from my window and is cold and green and brown not much to look at

Or is there!!

This that you can see here is bog deal it is a big pile of turf and dead wood which can be used to make sculptures

And the yellow flowers you can see behind it are gorse which is very very common in the bog

The first picture on the left is of
when we left school down
at the bog

And the second is of now down at the bog
yesterday

This picture is of the turf if you look down to the left you can see a digger and a tractor because there are people digging turf down there

This picture is of moycullen from the top of cru hill you
can see everything from up there

the mountain road
which is quite hard to see because its covered in tree's
